a monster infecting the water and people / scaring the fish

Prince Loran, court of aristocrats, bodyguard / champion, bitter wizard

Plagued by a giant sea monster who's spreading disease? Garmel's mission was to find the cause of the curse on the Princess. She's in a glass coffin.

Teach's song causes Elandra to say back and reveal a hologram of the key in the jellyfish

The prince shows us some of the monster victims, they have clear skin. Priests can cure it, but requires a lot.

Gore tells us all about the substance. Goff Chunder is here.

We give him 100gp to make him a friend.

I plunge point & shift in the prison room. Gore tries to hit Teade, but he uses heat metal + telekinesis to intimidate him and end the fight.

We meet Goff Chunder on the command deck, he's been converted too, with 4 eyes. Lake vaporizes a guy w/ a 60 cal lightning bolt, but cracks a viewport behind.

Titus got hit by the curse / infection but Lake cures it with a quick laser restoration pulse.

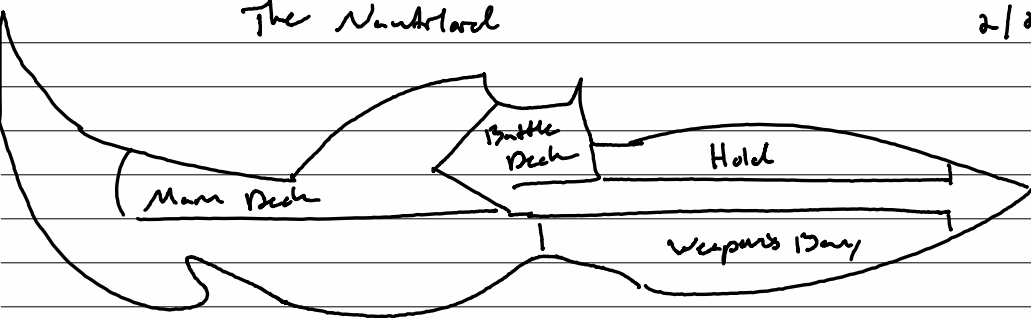

Cake uses the pearl to cure Goff Chunder. He was looking for treasure, but can get infected, passed it to him. "The Mosh" is a creature on the Challenge Deep (at the moment). The conversion plague! Alien creature, found at "the pristine shipwreck" nearby.

Chase send Klint to the bubble; its hard, glass like, and impenetrable

Maybe we can lift it with a lift bag? The plan is to use shuntstep to get in and out of the bubble, using rays of spell stirring for the other team

We also recharge the spell targets with Chase's spells
